As the manufacturer of products in accordance with REACH, the company Häfner und Krullmann GmbH is considered a “downstream user”. The products which you receive from us are not subject to registration as products in accordance with REACH.

In accordance with Article 33 of the REACH regulation, we, along with our suppliers, are obliged to inform our customers if a product delivered by us is a substance of very high concern (SVHC) contained in a mass percentage concentration of > 0.1%.

We have not received information from our suppliers on whether the substances from the current candidate list are contained in a mass percentage concentration of > 0.1% in the materials delivered to us. As soon as we receive relevant instructions, we will forward these to you without request.

Please understand that we cannot fill out any customer forms on the grounds of legal and formal reasons, especially since we do not have advanced knowledge at our disposal as a company whose sole responsibility lies in manufacturing.
