We would like to inform you that these directives apply to electrical and electronic equipment and that the products we supply to you do not fall within the scope of the directives.

Our products supplied to you are not intended for use in any product of the categories concerned.

Irrespective of this, our raw material orders include the requirement that the materials to be supplied comply with the EU Directives 2011/65/EU (RoHS) and 2015/863/EU.

Therefore, according to our current knowledge, we assume that the materials used by us do not contain any of the substances relevant according to the applicable directives or that the permitted limit values specified therein are not exceeded. We do not carry out any material analyses within the scope of quality assurance.
